

LET'S START 2015

As heartwarming as a cup of cocoa, as comfortable as your favourite bathrobe, Hotel Dauphine Saint Germain is nestled in the heart of the Latin Quarter and is the ideal choice for a dynamic, convenient and stylish stay in Paris.

Only steps away from boulevards Saint Germain and Saint-Michel, a walking distance from the Pont Neuf, Notre Dame Cathedral and the Louvre Museum, this hotel prides itself on providing a hospitality that is tailor-made for all those for whom the subtle nuances between the usual and the unexpected make all the difference.

Wake up in one of its elegant rooms, and you'll be ready to live the Paris of your dreams. Walk out the door after a delicious breakfast, and you'll step into the mix of culture and savoir-vivre of the St. Germain des Prés area. Be charmed by its stone facades, narrow streets with flower-covered balconies, amazing shops, the best in international fashion, fine gastronomy and specialized bookstores, as well as famous cafés (Le Flore, Les Deux Magots), the Odeon theater, cinemas and numerous art galleries.

Housed in a 17th century building, the hotel boasts 30 individually decorated rooms, each representative of the unmistakably French touch in interior decoration. You'll immediately know that you have entered a universe of Parisian chic, leisure and elegance when you recognize fabrics by Pierre Frey, Jane Churchill and Manuel Canovas, and lamps and mirrors by Sarah Lavoine. Each curtain, wall hanging, sofa, cushion or canopy has been carefully selected to make you dream and feel at home.

This nest of classical modernity offers you everything an urban, active and sophisticated visitor of The City of Light might need: traditional furnishings, marble bathrooms, minibars, cable TV, complimentary wireless Internet access, breakfast in the tearoom and room service around the clock... Ask our multilingual staff for priceless tips about what to do and where to go, and they'll give you an insider's insight into the best and most trendy Paris has to offer at that particular moment.

M.T.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the prettiest of them all...? Whether mirrors are magic or not, they are the perfect reflection of sincerity. They reflect both our physical appearance and our soul. Authenticity will never escape a mirror.

10,9,8,7... Go!

Marie gives the word charming a different definition, a French one, chic, hip and super cool. Sweet! She can zip around on her scooter through the crazy Parisian traffic in stiletto heels and a Chanel jacket, and emerge the image of poised polish.

If Paris is known as one of the most beautiful cities in the world, it's thanks to its history and heritage. One example is the iconic and stunning Notre-Dame Cathedral, located a 10 min walk from Hotel Dauphine St-Germain. This prodigious monument owes its reputation to its gothic style and its monumental "rose window".

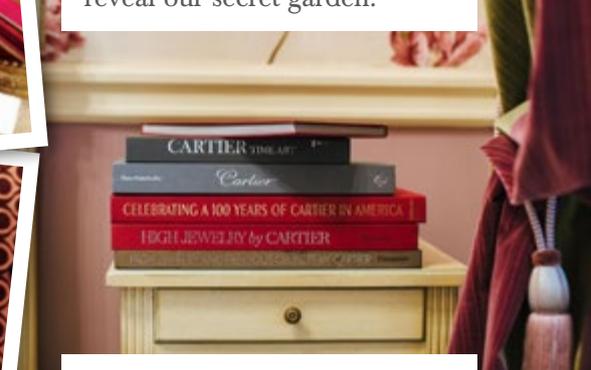

Let the city of Love sweep you off your feet. Your attitude to Paris's romantic ambiance should whisk you away and let your barriers down. Cross the bridge from Saint Germain to Notre Dame, and your breath is taken away as it is probably one of the best experiences in the city.

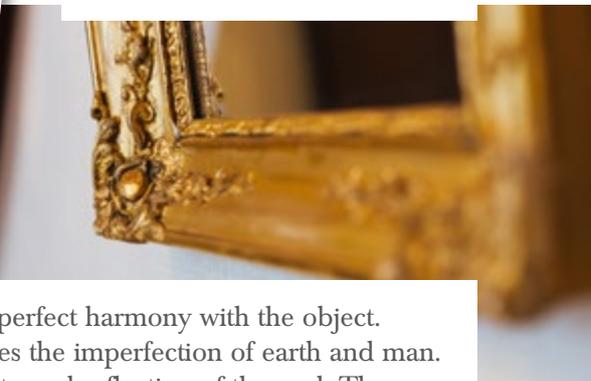

The traditional Baroque architecture and interior design of Hotel Dauphine St-Germain display the elegant French taste and craftsmanship. The headboard of the classic, sophisticated bed invites you to travel through French history and transports you back to the time of Louis XIV where luxury and elegance were part of daily life. The royal bed provides an intimate atmosphere and the gold tones remind you of the universe of the Sun King.

Through the looking glass, pass through the mirror. Escape reality and access a world of dreams, something every child has dreamed of. A mirror reflects the physical appearance, but can also reveal our secret garden.

It is possible to discover the romance, charm and allure of the city through a variety of literature...

The shape of this mirror is in perfect harmony with the object. Indeed, the square symbolizes the imperfection of earth and man. The mirror is the absolute sincerity and reflection of the soul. The combination of human imperfection and sincerity creates a perfect reflection.

Pink, one of the colors that represents romanticism, enjoyment and tenderness, blends perfectly with the color beige, that symbolizes peace, calmness, serenity and trust. Two delicate colors that are part of the charm of Hotel Dauphine St-Germain. This perfect mix of colors will make you feel serene and make your stay in Paris even more enjoyable.

2015 Horoscopes

Aries

2015 - It's a year full of fire and passion, and we get to choose how that passion is applied. If we don't participate, the world won't wait around for us. This year, we get to zero in on our personal passions and bring them closer to fulfillment.

If stressed or overburdened, this is your year to relax and work from a calmer, internally quiet place. All desire is not loud and hyperactive.

Focus on those few things that most deeply touch your heart and soul, pace yourself, and patiently address them every day. That's passionate living, too.

Is it your health, or better relationships, or ambitious career designs, or some humane or public service? Numerologically, 2015 is an 8-Year, with 8 signifying complete manifestation in the physical world. We can really make things happen in 2015!

Taurus

2015 is a great year for Taurus to begin something new and maybe choose a new direction for some part of your life. Mentally, you may have been preparing, and now's the time.

The Sun and Moon are both in Taurus as your year starts, so April and May could be the most agreeable for your plans.

Love and relationships in general may take a slight hit in July and August when Venus goes retrograde from July 25 until September 6. Sometimes you need to go extra slow with people and affairs of the heart, that's all.

Be extra creative and you'll be popular all summer long. The Mercury retrograde in Libra (September 17 to October 9) might stress relationships, but Venus rules here, too, and Taurus knows how to be sweet.

Be healthy, happy, and good to yourself, especially in November and December!

Gemini

2015 is an exciting year, Gemini, when relationships bloom, opportunities for personal growth and maturity abound, and friends and family become more cherished.

Sagittarius in Love:

Sagittarians are playful and love to have fun with their lovers. Passionate, expressive, and willing to try just about anything, partners who are equally outgoing are best suited to the Sagittarius. There's a fine line between sex and love for this sign. Their love of change and variety can bring a lot of different faces to the bedroom. But when it comes to love, that's an entirely different thing. Once taken, the Sagittarian is loyal, true-blue, and devoted. Mates for this sign need to be intellectual, sensitive, and expressive for the best results. As the key phrase for this sign is I understand, having a good sense of how their partner thinks is quite important.

As blazing and energetic as the year begins, you have plenty of built-in pauses to stay on track and take care of all those people and things you love.

Mercury retrograde (all in Air signs) is your friend. Yes, really!

January 21 to February 11 (Mercury in Aquarius) is a calmer social period; May 18 to June 11 (in Gemini) lets you mentally regroup and rethink what might have been done with too much haste the month before. September 17 to October 9 (in Libra) offers a chance to take a second look at any agreements or commitments you made or that were made to you earlier in the year.

Socially, Gemini is running in high gear all year. Eat healthy and get enough rest, and moderate those social indulgences. Friends and family are there to remind you how important you are, especially in the July. It is a fun, fabulous year!

Cancer

You may feel a bit like a sea creature out of water this year, with only sensitive Neptune in a fellow Water Sign (Pisces). This will illuminate your instincts, feelings, and intuition compared to all the other signs.

Keeping your emotions controlled may be the biggest challenge in late June and July, when the Sun and Saturn move into Water Signs, too.

The first two months you will be focused more on others, but make sure you also take good care of yourself so you can properly be there for loved ones or friends if they need you.

People keep you busy with fun in May and June. Your mind may motor in high gear while your attention zooms in on family, home, and what you love best. Things should calm down after the Sun-Mars conjunction on June 14.

With the Moon in Leo square Saturn in Scorpio on the Summer Solstice, you may not feel charming, but everyone will see your charm throughout the rest of the year!

Leo

You have a well-balanced year ahead, Leo, with plenty of passionate Fire, sensitive Water, practical Earth, and diplomatic Air energies at your fingertips.

Neptune will offer you illusions and comfortable escapes in February. Uranus will surprise and energize you in April. Mercury and Mars will tug at your heartstrings and family in July. Venus will make daily life more pleasant and comfortable than ever in September. What a year!

Jupiter spends the first half of 2015 in your sign, Leo, bringing good luck and abundance, but also the temptation to enjoy the good things in life in excess. Try to use moderation in all things, especially eating, spending, and socializing, and simply share the wealth.

Jupiter is retrograde until April 8, so be aware of maintaining or improving your personal integrity.

Energy might sag and minor health concerns could become a concern in November, when the Sun (the ruler of Leo) encounters Saturn. Balance and good sense can fix all. Take good care of yourself and enjoy each day to its fullest!

Virgo

2015 is a year of great luck and abundance, Virgo. There will also be strong feelings, opinions, and a great drive to succeed. It may be hard to think straight all the time amidst so much activity and bustling daily life, but you'll do your best.

Expect opportunities and congenial people around you from January 1, as your ruling planet Mercury is in Capricorn along with the Sun, Venus, and Pluto. Capricorn is an Earth Sign and very compatible with you, Virgo.

Jupiter enters Virgo on August 11. From then on, amplified good luck and prosperity should blossom. Friends and family (particularly siblings) may be extra generous. It's a year to bring each other many happy times.

Enhanced creativity, good times with groups of people (especially large gatherings), and a trip or two are all smiled upon this year. Be healthy, active, eat and rest well, because it's a busy year!

Libra

2015 gives you a deeper desire for material security and luxury. This means you'll have greater motivation and ambition. In your gentle, agreeable Libra way, you'll accomplish more and attract more compatible people into your camp.

You'll be extremely lucky with people, so network away! Then put social activities on pause during August, rest up and re-energize.

Mercury goes retrograde in your sign (September 17 - October 9) and this is a great thing, too. Consolidate your team of friends and family members now, and see clearly who your truest supporters are.

November and December are powerful times for you as well, particularly the last two days of December when your planet Venus moves into glorious Sagittarius.

Scorpio

Powerful good luck and instant energy are at your fingertips in 2015, Scorpio. Given your natural level of intensity, you'll need extra effort almost every day to not burn out or frazzle the people around you.

Be cool and a bit distant if necessary in February and March when instincts are tested and people become harder to read. Reserve judgment about others but don't over-idealize them - namely friends and family.

When Mars conjuncts Uranus (March 11) and when the Sun conjuncts Uranus (April 6), the Moon will be in Scorpio, affecting you more strongly than most other signs. Be braced for surprises.

Respect your physical limits, avoid overexertion, and be healthy and ambitious. Such a fiery year can be hard on a Water Sign like you, but 2015 gives you plenty of Earth energy to anchor and get you through!

Sagittarius

What a great year to be a Sagittarius! With so much admiration, respect, and authority coming your way, it could be hard to remember to be modest. Make the effort, though, be gracious and understated, and people will regard you all the more.

Be methodical and then trust your sound, critical judgment. Emotional judgment is strong and true, too, especially in February.

Saturn in Sagittarius this year adds to your patience and careful treatment of people and situations. Family and friends will think well of you no matter what, and could lavish extra affection on you in the springtime.

Be well, active, and avoid too many extra calories too often, however yummy. This could be an ongoing challenge after early April, when Jupiter's retrograde ends.

It's quite a delicious year, Sag!

Capricorn

Make a major new start in 2015, Capricorn, or perhaps several minor ones. Let your heart and passion be your guides. Then be your own best friend rather than your own worst enemy. (All unlike you, I know!)

Trust your gut. A slowly forming Jupiter-Saturn square (not perfected until August) will help keep you from going too far, too fast, or off track.

Family supports you in a big way, perhaps wondering what took you so long. You have great ambition and energy for your work this year, and also great compassion.

Your Capricorn year actually starts with the Capricorn New Moon (December 21, 2014). The day before, a Mars-Uranus sextile guarantees that you'll try your best and invent whatever you need, and the Venus-Pluto conjunction makes sure that you're noticed. Go out there and be amazing!

Find healthy ways to de-stress and to nurture and encourage yourself. This becomes increasingly important as the year progresses. Remember, it's not failure if it doesn't work the first time. Persist!

Aquarius

2015 sees you firmly in control of your own world, Aquarius, as well as prominent and lucky in public. Jupiter is at the top of your chart all year.

You can keep your private goals and desires private and still shine and work wonders for others. Any nervousness won't show in your appearance or how you present yourself. Saturn in fiery Sagittarius supports you.

Friends and family will see how hard you work and won't slow you down. But if you want help, just ask.

Mercury and Venus in Aquarius oppose Jupiter and anchor your chart for the year. Mercury goes retrograde in Aquarius (January 21-February 11), making you sharper and more cautious.

Your health looks strong, but overdoing things will be an ongoing concern. Be safe and avoid silly, careless accidents. It's a very well-balanced but high energy year, Aquarius!

Pisces

If you've ever dreamed of taking a step up and being a bigger, better you, 2015 is your year! Fresh, unexpected opportunities are everywhere, and doors will magically open for you, Pisces.

Be sensible, not giddy. Take all this good luck seriously, and say "thank you" often.

Give yourself enough attention and be healthy, especially in January through April. January and February (with the January 19 Mars-Neptune conjunction and the February 21 Venus-Mars conjunction) will keep you busy but happy.

Family and friends help you keep a lid on the wild times and offer sanity, harmony, and gentle fun and relaxation close to home. People may have high expectations of you, especially in the summer, and you may overextend yourself trying not to disappoint anyone.

Focus as much on yourself as others and become all that you want to be!
